

Family Fun

DAY ONE

After a delicious breakfast at Radius Cafe to start the day, head to Reception where you can hire bikes to take a ride around the Marysville Forest Trails. The Trails include the iconic Steavenson Falls, Beauty Spot, Gilberts Gully, Tree Fern Gully, Michaeldene, Wilks Creek and Keppel Lookout. Take in the beautiful landscape and have fun while riding around with the kids.

For further information on these trails download the FREE Visit Marysville App via iTunes or Google Play.

In the afternoon, you can't go past a visit to Gallipoli Park. This beautiful, newly restored park has an awesome state-of-the art playground kids just can't get enough of.

DAY TWO

A trip to Marysville isn't complete without heading to Lake Mountain Alpine Resort for fun with the whole family. Visit in winter to explore a snowy playground, complete with toboggan and cross-country ski runs or spend a spring day in a walker's paradise, with picnic spots, café, and amazing views. There's plenty of space for the kids to ride bikes, play games and explore.

Bruno's Art & Sculpture Garden is a world rich with fantasy and insightful beauty, bringing joy and inspiration to visitors from all over the world. This enchanting rainforest garden is populated by myriad life-size sculptures of goblins, fairies, wizards and imps, all expertly crafted by hand.
